

SNF Compliance & Ethics Program

Proactive Compliance Experts can meet your needs for development and ongoing implementation of a SNF Compliance & Ethics Program

- Written standards, policies & procedure templates
- Full program implementation projects with step by step guidance in all required element areas including but not limited to Compliance Program Training, Risk Assessment, Reporting & Investigating Violations, Auditing, Monitoring and Annual Program Review
- Education and mentoring of internal staff compliance personnel and/or remote Compliance Officer staffing with SNF experts Certified in Health Care Compliance

483.85 Compliance & Ethics Program Requirements

§483.85 F895 Compliance & Ethics Program.

- Compliance & Ethics Program development
- Written compliance and ethics standards, policies and procedures
- Designated Compliance & Ethics Program contact to which individuals may report suspected violations anonymously without fear of retribution
- Established disciplinary standards for violations & consistent enforcement of standards
- High level personnel assigned to oversee Compliance & Ethics Program with sufficient resources and authority established
- Communication of standards of the Compliance & Ethics Program to the entire staff, contract staff, and volunteers with completion of mandatory program training
- Auditing and monitoring systems to detect potential violations & ensure data integrity
- Compliance reporting systems
- Violation investigation and response systems
- Annual review of the program
- For 5+ facility organizations, mandatory annual training, designated compliance officer with direct reporting to the board, designated compliance liaison at each site

Proactive has a plan to fit the Compliance Program needs & budgets of individual SNF providers and chains with fewer than five facilities

Proactive Plan Options:

Did You Know?

The average Health Care Compliance Officer Salary is $99,659.00? That equals an estimated monthly expense of $8,300.00 before benefits.

1 Compliance Start Up Project

Project includes tools, resources and training you need to start up your in-house Compliance & Ethics Program.

Initial policies/procedures, SNF staff training template, compliance reporting system assistance, compliance liason training, and issue investigation forms/resources

Start Up Projects provide what you need to implement a compliance program for less than one month of an average Compliance Officer's salary.

(Note: The Compliance Start Up Package is included in the full RoP Phase 3 project.)

2 Compliance Annual Partnership Plan

Plan includes:

- Annual facility specific compliance risk assessment and work plan
- Full compliance program review annually
- Remote Compliance Officer staffed by expert consultant certified in healthcare compliance
- Compliance news/industry updates
- Training program oversight, Policy/Procedure updates, and up to 2 hours per month of general Compliance consultation with services over 2 hours/month involving investigation of violations and follow up remedies billed at a discounted hourly rate
- Consulting Services

Contact Proactive for budget friendly pricing options, including monthly installment plans.*

Discounts available for those participating in Proactive Phase 3 Requirements of Participation Partnerships.

